Mrs. B. R. Dearborn is once more able to be about the house after a long illness.

The Winnepesaukee Grange held their regular meeting on Friday evening and a program of more than ordinary interest was rendered.

The Womans Club will go to Center Harbor to visit the Womans Club at that place on Friday Nov. 1st

Eugene Irving of Lynn, Mass. and Earl Cowing of New Hampton made a recent visit to their home.

Mrs. P. M. Barry who has been visiting at her native place for the past few weeks returned home on Saturday.

C. J. Lane of Concord who has been ill here is much better and is able to take a short walk on pleasant day.

Col. Fred Merritt, proprietor of the Elm Hotel has entertained at his hotel many prominent men during the past few weeks, among those being Chas. Taft brother of President Taft, Winston Churchill author of "The Christs" Ex-Mayor Reed of Manchester, now running for Congress, and many other prominent men.

MEREDITH

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Cox, of York, Me. were summoned to Meredith to attend the funeral of Mr. Cox's father, Mr. Earl Cox of Laconia, which was held on Sunday.

Master John Beale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beale while playing one day last week fell and broke his arm.

Miss Bonnie Condit of Laconia has been visiting friends in town during the week.

Mrs. Frank Parrott has been confined to the house for a short time suffering with grippe troubles.

The Rev. R. H. Hill of Brookfield, Me. was a visitor in town on Wednesday last. Mr. Hill is a candidate for the pastorate at the Congregational church at Center Harbor.

The first entertainment arranged by the Entertainment Course of which there are five, will be held at the town hall Meredith on Wednesday evening when the Rochester Russian Orchestra will present something unique and pleasing musical production. Mr. Leon Muscanto leader of the orchestra is a musician of great repute, having for many years taught and been conductor of the orchestra and has been conductor of some of the celebrated bands in Russia, the members of his family have been under the careful instructions of this accomplished musician and together with the natural ability, painstaking care of an artist they have made a combination which is hard to equal. The Personnel of the orchestra is as follows: Leon Muscanto director Violin and Cello, Olga, Flute, Viola, Cello and Harmonium, Anna, Trump and Drums, Mischa, Violin and Cornet, Semon, piano.

Medora Haskell, Soprano Soloist is to accompany the orchestra on the tour. Her voice is sweet and admirably controlled.

Remember the Oak Hill harvest supper this Wednesday evening from 6 to 8 p. m.

Plans are being made for a grand Temperance Rally to be held in town hall on Sunday evening Nov. 3rd. Under the direction of the churches of this town. Watch out for further notice.

Mrs. Frank Parrott will go to Portsmouth to stay for several weeks. From there she will visit some of the attractions at the Boston theatres.

Mrs. Joseph Collard visited Mrs. David Halliday of Lakeport, while there she attended the Mission of that place.

Joseph Collard and family are moving this week from Plymouth St. to Winnepesaukee St.

At the meeting of the Woman's Progress Club last week Mrs. Augusta M. Moulton gave a very interesting paper entitled "Observation of Life in Germany and Switzerland" which was greatly enjoyed by those present. Musical and refreshments completed the program.

The next regular meeting of the Club will be held at Ladd Hall Nov. 5th.

Reciprocity day with the Center Harbor Club is November 1st.

KNIGHT AND HUNTRESS - Laconia, N. H.

This handsome Theatre was opened the past year, its chief owner and promoter being Mr. Chas. H. Ballard, a native of Meredith, and brother of Mr. W. W. Ballard of the Ballard House. Mr. Ballard has been located in Boston for about 30 years, beginning on the Street Railway, then in the Hack and Cab Service, followed by the Restaurant and Lunch Business in different locations in the city. He has made good, by his own push and enterprise, even as we have seen in Class Vaudeville and Moving Picture Theatres in Boston.

He is desirous of having the Readers of this Paper cut out this Announcement and present at the door of the Theatre any afternoon or evening when they will be given a Free Admission Ticket.

Take the elevated train to Northampton Street which is only a few minutes ride from any station.
